

UNIwersYTET
Andrzeja Frycza Modrzewskiego
w Krakowie

Collegium Medicum Faculty of Medicine

SUBJECT CARD

Field of studies: Medicine

Form of studies: Full-time course

Degree: long-cycle Master's program

Specializations: No specialization

Academic year: 2024/2025

Practical Clinical Training - PSYCHIATRY
SUBJECT NAME	Practical Clinical Training - PSYCHIATRY
NUMBER OF ECTS POINTS:	4
LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION	English
TEACHER(S)	Persons employed in hospitals with which the University has signed contracts
PERSON RESPONSIBLE	dr. hab. Dariusz Plicner, Prof. UAFM
NUMBER OF HOURS:
INTERSHIP:	68 h (including 8 h of duties)
MAIN GOALS
GOAL 1:	Enabling students to apply in practice the previously acquired knowledge in the field of diagnosing the most common gynecological diseases and obstetrical problems and planning appropriate therapy
GOAL 2:	Creating conditions for the acquisition and improvement of cognitive skills (interpretation of data, making medical decisions) and practical skills (performing simple diagnostic and therapeutic procedures)
GOAL 3:	Implementation of students to work in a team composed of representatives of various medical professions
LEARNING OUTCOMES

Practical Clinical Training - PSYCHIATRY

MK1	Knowledge: The student knows the basics of differentiation and diagnosis as well as treatment of the most common psychiatric disorders
MK2	The student gets acquainted with the organization of the psychiatric department and the rules of patients registration
MS1	Skills: The student conducts a medical interview with a patient and his/her family
MS2	The student conducts a psychiatric examination
MS3	The student assesses and describes patient's mental status
MS4	The student Schedules diagnostic, therapeutic and prophylactic procedures in urgent situations
MS5	The student can diagnose and act properly in psychiatric emergencies
MS6	The student can diagnose patient's conditions under the influence of alcohol, narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances
MS7	The student is able to diagnose symptoms of drug dependence and propose a proper treatment
MS8	The student performs on a basic level a differential diagnosis of affective, psychotic, mental disorders as well as personality disorders.
MS9	The student diagnoses mental disorders in children
MS10	The student can identify an abused child syndrom
MS11	The student participates in defining a functional status of the patient and his preferences restricting a standard management
MS12	The student is able to choose the legal medical management when acting without a patient's consent is needed
MS13	The student is able to choose the legal medical management when acting without a patient's consent is needed
MS14	The student keeps patient's medical record
MC1	Social competences: The students aadheres to medical confidentiality and patient rights
MC2	The student demonstrates respect and care for patients

Practical Clinical Training - PSYCHIATRY

MC3

The student can cooperate with other members of the hospital team

INTRODUCTORY REQUIREMENTS

Possession of basic knowledge in the field of psychology and psychiatrics, confirmed by passing exams in the relevant subjects. Ability to perform a medical interview and examine adult patients and children.

COURSE PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION

Internship

Participation in a daily medical visit, Interviewing and examining the patients, Participation in the diagnostic and therapeutic process
Keeping medical records.

Duty hours

Accompanying the doctor on duty, examining patients, participating in the diagnostic and therapeutic process.

DIDACTIC METHODS (APPLIED)

DESCRIPTION

Working with the patient in the ward and/or emergency room

STUDENTS WORKLOAD:

CONTACT HOURS WITH THE ACADEMIC TEACHER

68 h

HOURS WITHOUT THE PARTICIPATION OF THE ACADEMIC TEACHER

Preparation for classes: 20 h
Preparation for the exam: 30 h

TOTAL NUMBER OF HOURS FOR THE COURSE

118 h

CONDITIONS FOR COURSE COMPLETION

The student is obliged to follow every day clinical duties, to implement the didactic plan recorded in the Student Diary of Clinical Training, practice the practical skills listed therein and diligently perform the tasks assigned to him.

The student records the activities performed in the Diary, and the acquired skills are confirmed by the signature of the supervisor. The student is expected to demonstrate a proper attitude towards patients and their relatives, as well as proper cooperation with other members of the therapeutic team.

Completion of the internship is confirmed by the direct supervisor's signature. The final credit is made by the person responsible for the course.

Practical Clinical Training - PSYCHIATRY

METHODS OF ASSESMENT:

IN TERMS OF KNOWLEDGE:	The student's knowledge is checked on an ongoing basis during discussions with the direct supervisor of the practice
IN TERMS OF SKILLS:	Prolonged observation by the supervisor. OSCE exam at the end of the year.
IN TERMS OF SOCIAL COMPETENCE:	As above
FORMATIVE:	N.A.
SUMMATIVE (I & II)	Assessment of knowledge including specialties covered by the Practical Clinical Training is carried out through the MCQ exam . The MCQ exam consists of 150 questions with 4 answer options, and one correct answer and covers the basics of all mandatory specialties included in Practical Clinical Training. The passing level is set at 55% of correct answers. The summative assessment of practical skills has a form of Objective Structured Clinical Exam, which consists of 10 stations, including two with double tasks. Each of the stations is assessed according to its own criteria, and passing the entire exam requires passing of at least 8 stations, with the absolute requirement to pass the station testing skills in ALS.

GRADING SCALE

This is a pass course without a grade.

BASIC LITERATURE

As stated in the Subject Cards for Introduction into psychiatry, Psychiatry, Psychosocial aspects of health and disease, and Psychosocial conditions of behaviour

SUPPLEMENTARY LITERATURE